“Look, here is water. Why shouldn’t I be baptized?”
Acts 8:36

Meet your new sister in Christ – Kaidi Aasumets!

Tuesday afternoon Kaidi and a small group of her newest friends “found water” on the 13th floor of a building overlooking the Tartu city center.

Kaidi, a 21 year old student at the beautician college, realized she truly believed that Jesus is the Son of God and her Savior, almost a year ago at an inter-denominational campaign in Tallinn. She began reading her Bible, visiting churches in Tartu, and seeking answers. In addition to her training she works and supports herself as a waitress in a new Asian restaurant on the ground floor of the building where our Tartu church family meet upstairs. Our brother Tonis began to eat regularly at the Asian restaurant ... and became acquainted with Kaidi. She expressed her longing to find the right church and a place where she could be helped to understand more about the scriptures. A few weeks ago, business was slow and she was allowed to run upstairs until customers arrived. Business was slow long enough for her to be in the ladies group study, to worship with the church and to meet everyone. Before she went back downstairs, she had a request: “I want to be baptized! Can you help me understand about this?” Our apartment has been like a “chariot” for the past two weeks where Kaidi has asked her questions and Ron has answered and explained God’s Word.

*If you visit Kaidi’s Facebook, you will see that she posted:
“27.04 kell 16:00 sunnipaev Tanud Jumalale”
Translation “April 27 at 4 PM My birthday. Thank you, God!”*

And the Lord added to their number, Kaidi who is now saved!

Thank you, God, for answering our prayers to bring those with hearts searching for truth into your eternal family!
